Special Delivery from Lyme School Students

Woodsville, NH – Cottage Hospital's newborns will have a little something special keeping them warm this year. Ms. Wilcox's third grade class has once again created adorable baby quilts as a community service project.

The third grade class at Lyme School in Lyme, NH has been creating these quilts for many years and the tradition has been much appreciated.

The families of our birthing center appreciate these unique gifts, they are a token of the kind of experience we try and provide to our patients.

Cottage Hospital is a 25 bed, critical access hospital serving the beautiful Upper Connecticut River Valley. For additional information regarding Cottage Hospital and any of our services, visit us on the web at www.cottagehospital.org, or call (603)747-9000.
