18th Annual Cottage Hospital Variety Show Returns Saturday April 18th

Woodsville—It will be a night of shining stars at Cottage Hospital's eighteenth annual variety show, Saturday, April 18, 2009 in Woodsville. Sixteen acts will fill the stage at the Community Building beginning at 7:00 p.m. The show will feature a variety of performances. The show will be co-hosted by hospital employees Scott Schafer and Sharon McCallie-Steller.

Advance tickets are just $5 for adults, $4 for children and seniors and will be sold until the morning of Friday, April 17th. Tickets are one dollar more at the door. All money raised from the show will benefit the Cottage Hospital 2009 Annual Appeal fundraiser to support the purchase of a Cardiac Monitors for our Emergency Department.

Cardiac monitors are one of the most essential parts of the Emergency Department equipment. It allows the ED team to quickly diagnose cardiac emergencies. Early detection can allow for quick interventions that can prevent serious long term damage to the heart.

Tickets are now on sale at Cottage Hospital and Woodsville Guaranty Savings Bank (Woodsville Locations only), Laconia Savings Bank (Woodsville branch) and Wells River Savings Bank (Wells River Branch).

Call the Community Relations office at Cottage Hospital at (603) 747-9189 for more information.
