Cottage Hospital Gets a New Look at Art

Woodsville, NH – Cottage Hospital is pleased to be hosting the artwork of Woodsville Elementary School's Kindergarten classes of Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Sobecki and Mrs. Stimson.

The works are being showcased in the Cottage Hospital Art Gallery through the month of January and feature vivid finger-painted scenes of the holiday season and a few with the bright promise of the spring with pretty flowers and blue skies. Also showcased are gingerbread cutouts dressed in colors and crafts – showing that, like snowflakes no two are alike.

Community Relations Director, Maryanne Aldrich remarked that the art show has brought a buzz to the hospital with the lively colors, We are very happy to showcase such creative works by the Woodsville Kindergarten classes.

The next time you visit the hospital take a moment to view these masterpieces.
